Holistic Ethics Ecosystem

- Learn how to live with ethics, care for others, and protect the environment.
- Be part of a system that builds strong, fair, and healthy communities.

Shared Power & Visibility

- Get help from shared resources like websites and campaigns.
- NGOs get guidance to plan better, grow faster, and show results clearly.
- Your work will be noticed and supported.

Structured Support

- Clear steps and strong systems to help grow your impact.
- Training and networks to keep your mission stable and successful

IAMMOSAFER The Big Picture

A global movement focused on ethical living and responsible leadership.
Supports four types of change-makers:

1. Social Impact Heroes
2. Social Impact Operators
3. Social Impact Alliances
4. Global Partners

Each one receives customized support to grow in areas such as ethics, sustainability, and leadership.

Social Impact Operators

When you become a Social Impact Operator:

- You run ethical programs for food, community, and business growth.
- You build trust in your work and get support to grow.
- You connect with partners and get noticed on larger platforms.

'We channel part of your subscription into programs that create lasting social good'

"AMANAH TABLE"

These food programs give healthy meals to people who need them. They work with:

- Cloud kitchens
- Food processing partners
- Local communities
- Trainers who teach nutritious cooking

They make sure food is shared with dignity and love.

Why It Matters:

- Gives nutritious, halal-certified food.
- Helps poor families avoid unhealthy food systems.

Local Empowerment

- Teaches people to grow food at home, start farms, and preserve ingredients.
- Builds food security for the long term.

Training & Jobs

- People learn farming, nutrition, and how to run food businesses.
- Create small income opportunities while feeding others.

CommunityFUND

For Social Impact Operators (SIO), membership fees collected from community members will be used to start a special community fund based on the waqf concept. This fund will grow over time and be reinvested into businesses that follow the waqf or social impact model.

WeASPIRE

WeASPIRE, Yayasan Aspirasi Wanita is an International Social 'Sejahtera' Advocate (ISSA), a social impact agency advocating for "Living Topyiban"—a lifestyle rooted in holistic ethics, sustainability, and global citizenship
